BUDS.

We can furnish Satsuma Orange and Marsh Seedless Pomelo Buds at $1.00 per 100 by mail, or $6.00 per 1,000 by express. The above are the only varieties of which we can supply bud wood.

This Stock is in Good Condition for Planting.

The frequent cold snaps of January and February have kept the stock dormant later than usual. The season, as well as the stock, is backward, and planting can be safely continued a month later than during ordinary seasons.

Plant Hardy Fruits.

The effect of the recent blizzards has again forced attention to the advantage of planting trees which are not apt to be injured by cold. Of the stock herein offered, nothing but Kumquats and Pomegranates has been in the slightest degree hurt by the cold.

Satsuma Oranges

are being heavily planted and we believe justly so. We are planting ten acres additional of them ourselves. All of our trees of this variety on Trifoliata stock are fresh and sound to the very tips.

APPLYING PRICES.—Five, fifty and five hundred trees or plants at ten, hundred or thousand rates, respectively, purchaser's selection from varieties to which prices apply. For instance, fifty or more peaches in one or more varieties would come at the hundred rate, and five hundred or more at the thousand rate.

IMPORTANT!!—At this season, particular varieties and sizes may run out at any time. In ordering, please indicate what substitution may be made in this case, or, better still, leave this to us. Where substitution is not permissible, patrons should state this distinctly; otherwise, if varieties or sizes ordered are exhausted, we shall substitute to the best of our judgment.

GENERAL OFFER.—Orders aggregating 100 Trees and Plants, from this list, including not more than 20 varieties, we will fill at "hundred rates." Orders aggregating 1000 Trees and Plants, from this list, including not more than 40 varieties, we will fill at "thousand rates," and where no thousand rate is given, at lowest rate named. This applies only to orders containing a plainly written reference to this "General Offer" and is in effect only during March and April, 1898.

The Stock listed is of the usual high quality, and is in prime condition.

The Prices herein named speak for themselves. Freight prepaid in the Gulf States on cash orders of $5.00 and upward.

The Time to order for this season's planting is now.
